Brown and URI Meet For The Governor's Cup In 100th Game

BROWN (0-2) vs. RHODE ISLAND (0-4)

Saturday, October 3, 2015

Kickoff: 6:00 pm

Brown Stadium; Providence, R.I.

Radio: WPRV-AM 790

Watch Live: <http://www.ILDN.com>

The Bears: Brown (0-2, 0-1 Ivy) ran into a Crimson juggernaut Saturday evening, falling to Harvard by a 53-27 margin in Boston, Mass. Junior quarterback Kyle Moreno (Pleasanton, CA), who threw for two touchdowns and ran for two more, paced the Bears.

The Rams: Rhode Island (0-4, 0-2 CAA) traveled to Orono, Maine and dropped a 27-17 decision to the Black Bears. Rams' junior quarterback Paul Mroz threw for 234 yards, completing 17-of-39 passes.

The Governor's Cup History – 100th Meeting: Brown and Rhode Island have met 99 times, dating back to 1909, with the Bears holding a 71-26-2 series advantage over the Rams. Last year, Brown earned its fourth straight win over the Rams, 20-13, in Kingston, RI to retain the Governor's Cup. In 2010, Rhode Island came away with a 27-24 win in overtime over the Bears at Meade Stadium. Historically, Brown won the first 23 meetings between the two teams, the first 16 by shutout. The Bears and Rams met continuously for 67 years, from 1925 to 1991, but a scheduling snafu temporarily disrupted the series. The series resumed in 1993 and the two teams are scheduled to play at least through the year 2021. Two previous Rhode Island Governors have played in the Governor's Cup game: Phil Noel, Brown Class of 1954, and Donald Carcier, Brown Class of 1965.

Honorary Captains: Brown and Rhode Island will recognize honorary captains before the game and at halftime. Brown's honorary captains consist of former players, who have competed in the game or are loyal friends of the program, and were selected by a vote of alumni and fans. Brown's Honorary Captains are: John Berylson '75, Stephen Campbell '00, Donald Carcier '65, Richard Carolan '58, Tom Catena '86, Paul Choquette '60, Dennis Coleman '75, Zak DeOssie '07, James Develin '10, Dick Dresdale '78, Robert Farnham '77, Robert Flanders '71, Anthony Gould '64, Bob Hall '66, Nick Hartigan '06, Marquis Jessie '97, Steve Jordan '82, Art Joukowsky '55, Jerry Massa '77, Sean Morey '99, Kevin Mundt '76, Philip Noel '54, Gordon Perry '55, James Perry '00, George Pyne '88, Brian Wallace '54, Mark Whipple '79 and Gus White '57.

Fuller Throws For Over 400 Yards: Senior co-captain Marcus Fuller (Ashland, OH) came up with a big performance in the Bears' season opener against Bryant, completing 32-of-52 passes for 403 yards and an 83-yard touchdown completion. Fuller returns for a fifth year after a solid inaugural season as the Bears' signal caller, throwing 15 touchdown passes and passing for 2,618 yards, eighth all-time at Brown. He ranked 14th nationally with 261.8 passing yards per game and 21st in the nation in completions per game (19.8).

Moreno In Relief Role: Junior quarterback Kyle Moreno (Pleasanton, CA) came into the Harvard game midway through the second quarter and passed for 307 yards, completing 20-of-31 passes, while also rushing for 28 yards. He threw touchdown passes of 79 and five yards, and ran for touchdowns of 11 and four yards against the Crimson.

Fuller To Doles – Third Longest Pass Play Ever: Brown's first touchdown of the 2015 season came on an 83-yard pass play from senior quarterback Marcus Fuller (Ashland, OH) to senior wide receiver Troy Doles (Saratoga, CA) against Bryant. Doles grabbed the pass at midfield and outran the Bulldogs' defense into the end zone. The 83-yard completion is the third longest passing play in Brown's 138-year football history.

Brian Strachan Named National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete Semifinalist: Brown senior wide receiver Brian Strachan (Wellesley, MA) is among 135 football student-athletes, including five Ivy League standouts, announced as candidates for the 2015 National Football Foundation (NFF) National Scholar-Athlete Awards, presented by Fidelity Investments®.

Running Downfield: Head coach Phil Estes is looking to get more production out of the running back position and will look to seniors Andrew Coke (Andover, MA) and Seth Rosenbauer (Lima, OH) to set the pace. Coke led the Bears in rushing with 516 yards last year and ran for a season-high 89 yards vs. Holy Cross. Last year, Rosenbauer, a converted quarterback, rushed for 382 yards, including 206 yards vs. Penn, in being named the Ivy League Player of the Week. Junior Johnny Pena (Tucson, CA) led the Bears with 47 yards on the ground against Harvard.

Jette On The Receiving End: All-Ivy junior wide receiver Alex Jette (North Attleboro, MA) made an impact in Brown's opening game against Bryant with seven receptions for 84 yards, while rushing once for 10 yards. He had two catches for 30 yards against Harvard. Last year, Jette made 26 catches and returned punts for the Bears with 8.7 yards per return, 29th best in the nation.

Doles 3rd Nationally In Receiving Yards: Senior wide receiver Troy Doles (Saratoga, CA) leads the Ivy League and ranks third in the nation with 133.0 receiving yards per game. Strachan 15th Nationally In Receptions: Senior wide receiver Brian Strachan (Wellesley, MA) ranks 15th nationally with 7.0 receptions per game. He made eight catches for 87 yards against Harvard. Strachan opened the season against Bryant with six catches for 53 yards. In 2014, Strahan made a team leading 56 catches, sixth best in the Ivy League, for 668 yards.

Brown Head Coach Phil Estes: Since Phil Estes became head coach of the Bears in 1998, his Brown football teams have captured three Ivy League titles (1999, 2005, 2008), finished second four times, third five times, and overall have finished in the top half of the Ivy League in 14 of his 17 seasons, while compiling an impressive 70-49 Ivy mark (.600), 103-66 (.610) overall. Estes' 70 career Ivy League wins are the most ever at Brown and rank sixth in the Ivy League record book, while his 103 career wins overall rank 10th all-time in the Ivy League. Estes' 169 career games coached at Brown are ninth in Ivy football history. Estes, the 19th head coach in Brown history, is the second winningest coach in Brown football history, guiding the Brown football program to an unprecedented level of success, winning three Ivy League Championships, including Brown's first ever Ivy outright title in 2005. He has also coached and recruited Brown's only four Ivy League Players of the Year – Sean Morey '99, James Perry '00, Nick Hartigan '06 and Buddy Farnham '10. In the 17 years Estes has coached on the East Side, five of his players have gone on to win Super Bowl rings. The select fraternity includes James Develin of the New England Patriots (2015), two-time winner Zak DeOssie of the New York Giants (2008, 2012), the Pittsburgh Steelers' Sean Morey (2006) and New England Patriots' Drew Inzer (2001) and Chas Gessner (2003).

Head Coach: Phil Estes, 18th season

Game #1      Bryant at Brown    September 19, 2015      Providence, R.I.

Bryant capitalized on five Brown turnovers, including four in the red zone, to earn a 17-13 win over the Bears in a battle of Ocean State teams at Brown Stadium. Bryant improves to 2-0 on the season, while Brown falls to 0-1.

The Bears had an opportunity to win it at the end. With first and goal at the Bryant two yard-line and 1:25 left on the clock, the Bears were unable to get into the end zone following a loss of 10 yards, two incompletions and an interception in the end zone.

Brown's offense outgained the Bulldogs by a 486-353 margin with Bears' senior quarterback Marcus Fuller (Ashland, OH) passing for 403 yards, while completing 32-of-52 passes.

Senior wide receiver Troy Doles (Saratoga, CA) had the best day of his career, making six catches for 147 yards, including an 83-yard touchdown reception. Junior Alexander Jette (North Attleboro, MA) made seven receptions for 84 yards, while junior Garrett Swankey (Los Angeles, CA) had seven catches for 70 yards.

The Bulldogs were paced by quarterback Dalton Easton, who passed for 309 yards, while wide receiver Chad Ward made eight catches for 180 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively, Brown senior inside linebacker Max Tylki (Wethersford, CT) made nine tackles, including two for a loss, while senior safety Zachary Gillen (Mt. Brook, AL) had seven stops.

Brown struck first on an 83 yard scoring pass from Fuller to Doles, who caught the ball at the Bears' 49-yard line and outran the Bulldogs' defense into the end zone for the first score of the 2015 season, giving the Bears a 7-0 advantage.

Dole's 83-yard touchdown reception from Fuller is the third longest pass play in Brown football history.

Senior Grant Senne (Winter Park, FL) extended Brown's lead to 10-0 with a 20-yard field goal at the 1:54 mark of the opening quarter.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard and cut Brown's lead to 10-7 on a 24-yard scoring pass from Easton to Ward with 4:14 left in the half.

Bulldogs' kicker Ricky Perez tied the game, 10-10, with a 37-yard field goal with just two seconds remaining in the half.

Senne's second field goal of the game, this time a career best 45-yard boot, gave Brown a 13-10 third quarter lead with 3:59 remaining.

Bryant used a little razzle-dazzle to take its first lead of the game on a wide receiver option. Torrey Dixon looked like he was running a reverse, pulled up and spotted a wide-open Ward at the seven-yard line. Ward did the rest of the work and got into the end zone to give the Bulldogs a 17-13 lead late in the third quarter.

Another Senne field goal, this time from 23 yards, cut Bryant's lead to 17-16 at the 10:44 mark of the fourth quarter.

A 24-yard field goal by Perez with 3:55 remaining accounted for the final score.

Game #2      Brown at Harvard   September 26, 2015   Boston, Mass.

Brown ran into a Crimson juggernaut, falling to Harvard by a 53-27 margin before a crowd of 15,804 at Harvard Stadium to open the Ivy League season. The Bears fall to 0-2 on the young season, while Harvard improved to 2-0, winning its 14th straight game.

The Bears, who haven't won at Harvard Stadium since 1999, were held without a first down for the opening 20 minutes of the game as the Crimson built a 30-0 advantage. Junior quarterback Kyle Moreno (Pleasanton, CA) came into the game in a relief role midway through the second quarter and played well enough to get the Bears' offense back on track.

Moreno finished the game by passing for 307 yards overall, completing 20-of-31 passes, while running for two touchdowns and throwing for two more. Senior Brian Strachan (Wellesley, MA) led the Bears' receivers with eight catches for 87 yards, while senior Troy Doles (Saratoga, CA) racked up 119 receiving yards.

Crimson quarterback Scott Hosch saw all of his action in the opening half, completing 12-of-19 passes for 151 yards and three touchdowns. Tailback Paul Stanton rushed for a game-high 89 yards, all in the first half.

Defensively, senior linebacker Will Twyman (Sudbury, MA), senior free safety Zach Gillen (Mt. Brook, AL) and junior outside linebacker Ryan MacDonald (Falmouth, ME) had big games for the Bears. Gillen had 12 tackles, Twyman 11 total hits and MacDonald 10 tackles.

Harvard struck first, putting together a six-play, 61-yard scoring drive on its second possession, capped off by a 25-yard touchdown strike from Hosch to Jack Stansell with 9:12 left in the opening quarter.

The Crimson opened a 14-0 lead when Sean Ahern sacked Bears' quarterback Marcus Fuller (Ashland, OH), jarring the ball loose. Harvard linebacker Jacob Lindsey picked up the loose ball and ran into the end zone for the score.

Harvard blocked a Brown punt at the goal line and a heads up Bears' junior Brandon Davenport (Murfreesboro, TN) knocked it out of the end zone, preventing a Crimson touchdown, but giving up the safety to give Harvard a 16-0 advantage with 1:57 left in the first quarter.

Back-to-back early second quarter touchdowns by the Crimson put the Bears in a 30-0 hole with 12:43 remaining.

Moreno pumped some life into the Bears offense, entering the game at the 10-minute mark of the second quarter. Moreno guided the Bears to their initial first down of the game and drove the Bears down to the Crimson three-yard line before turning the ball over on downs.

Harvard led 37-0 at the half and built a 46-0 advantage with 9:50 left in the third quarter.

Moreno guided the Bears to its first score of the game with 8:03 left in the quarter, running the ball into the end zone from 11 yards out for his first career touchdown, capping a four-play, 59-yard drive.

After another Harvard score that gave the Crimson a 53-6 lead, Moreno led the Bears to another touchdown. This time, Moreno scored on a 12-yard run late in the quarter to cut the Crimson lead to 53-13.

A couple of firsts came on Brown's next score with Moreno throwing his first career touchdown pass to sophomore Oliver Bucka (Menlo City, CA), who hauled in his first career TD pass and cut Harvard's lead to 53-20 in the fourth quarter.

Moreno connected with Doles on a 79-yard scoring play with 8:41 left in the game to pull the Bears to within 53-27 of the Crimson.
