HOME GAMES IN CAPS

* Northeast Conference Game

Today's Game • The Blue Devils return home to host Rhode Island in a late afternoon kickoff on Family Day at CCSU. The Blue Devils and Rams have played just three times in the past with the most recent contest coming last season in Kingston. This is also the third game against a Colonial Athletic Association member this season for CCSU. Today's contest is also the first of five home games for CCSU over the next nine weeks.

Series History • Today's game is the fourth in the all-time series between these programs and the second to take place at Arute Field. CCSU and URI met last season in Kingston with the host Rams winning 42-7. Prior to that the teams last played in Week Two of the 2005 season, when URI came to Arute Field and won 56-10. The first meeting in the series came in 2004, a 39-7 victory by the Rams in Rhode Island.

CCSU vs. CAA • The Blue Devils are 1-1 this season against the CAA with member institution Rhode Island visiting today. The Blue Devils two victories all-time against the CAA came at Albany last year and the season opening victory over Towson this year. The Blue Devils have never beaten a CAA member at Arute Field.

Non-Conference • The Blue Devils are playing their fifth of six non-conference opponents this year without playing multiple teams from any particular state. The Blue Devils opened with Towson (Maryland), then hosted Albany (New York) and traveled to Holy Cross (Massachusetts) in the first three weeks. They visited Dartmouth (New Hampshire) and today host Rhode Island (Rhode Island). The final non-conference game will be against Howard (District of Columbia) on Nov. 15.

First Year Coaches • This game will feature a pair of head coaches in their first season with their respective programs. CCSU's Pete Rossomando comes to New Britain after a successful run as the head coach of Division II New Haven. While Jim Flemming most recently served as the defensive coordinator at an FBS program, UCF.

Homecoming on the Horizon • CCSU's Annual Homecoming Weekend will be held October 10-12 and will be highlighted by the Blue Devils Northeast Conference Opener against Duquesne on Saturday, Oct. 11. Kickoff is scheduled for 1 p.m. and fans that cannot make it out can watch the game live on ESPN3.com.

Another ESPN3 Opportunity • Thanks to the Northeast Conference's television package the CCSU game against Bryant on November 1 will also be available to watch live on ESPN3.com. Fans should note that CCSU's games against Duquesne and Bryant, which will air on ESPN3, will not be available to watch on NECFrontRow.com. But fans will still be able to listen to Bruce Biel and Marc Robbins on Fox Sports Radio 1410 AM and the iHeart Radio App.

Trouble in the Red-Zone • The Blue Devils are averaging 381.8 yards of total offense per game, which ranks among the top half of FCS programs, but CCSU has struggled in red-zone scoring ranking 109th in the nation. The Blue Devils have scored on nine of 16 red-zone opportunities (56%), while their opponents have scored 10 times in 12 chances (83%).

Pauldo Named Rookie of the Week • Freshman Tavion Pauldo earned Northeast Conference Rookie of the Week honors on Monday for his performance in last Saturday's game at Dartmouth. Pauldo, playing limited snaps, tossed a touchdown pass to junior Aaron Berardino and then ran for a score himself. He totaled 102 yards of total offense and the first touchdowns of his collegiate career in the game.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

All Central Connecticut football games can be heard live on Fox Sports Radio 1410 AM and online through the iHeart Radio App.

Home games are also available to watch live on NECFrontRow.com.

Bruce Biel, play-by-play, and Marc Robbins, analyst, will call the action for CCSU Football this season.

Last Season at URI • The Rams posted 448 yards of total offense and forced five Blue Devil turnovers to win last season's contest, 42-7. The lone CCSU score came via a touchdown pass from Andrew Clements to Matt Braddock in the fourth quarter. The TD grab was the first score of Braddocks career.

SanGiacomo's 3,000 • Junior quarterback Nick SanGiacomo has already thrown for 960 yards this season and 3,427 in his career. With 173 passing yards today he will move past Gunnar Jespersen (3,599) for fifth place on CCSU's career list. Scott Dolch (2001-04) holds the all-time record of 5,728.

Holmes Over 1,000 • Senior Tyrell Holmes is only in his second year as a wide receiver, but he eclipsed 1,000 career receiving yards during Saturday's loss to Holy Cross. Holmes enters play today with 1,039 receiving yards on 59 catches. A big play threat, Holmes has a career average of 17.6 yards per catch.

More Holmes Numbers • The next receiving touchdown for senior Tyrell Holmes will be the 10th of his career, CCSU's all-time career record for receiving touchdowns is 16 held by John Mulligan (1965-66). Mulligan also holds the CCSU single-season record of 10, which he set during the 1966 season.

Closing in on the Record • Senior running back Rob Hollomon enters today's game with 2,899 rushing yards and he is quickly closing in on CCSU's all-time career rushing record of 3,347 set by Stan House (1994-97). The only other Blue Devils to eclipse 3,000 career rushing yards is James Mallory (2006-09) who ran for 3,245. Hollomon is just 347 yards shy of Mallory and needs just 449 to break House's record. Hollomon needs to average 56.2 yards per game over the final nine games of the season to break the record.

Abner's Interception • Senior Chris Abner's interception on Saturday (9/13) against Holy Cross stopped a Crusader drive and gave the Blue Devils the momentum in the third quarter. The pick was also the first for Abner since his freshman season.

Hollomon Milestones • Here are a few Rob Hollomon quick facts heading into week five of his senior season:

- He has played 26 games for CCSU and has 16 games with 100+ yards rushing. Of those 16 games...he has nine games of 145+ rushing yards, six of 160+ yards and three with over 200+ yards.
- Fourth player in program history with two seasons of 1,000+ rushing yards.
- In addition to running the ball, Hollomon also returns kicks and catches passes. He has posted 11 games with 200+ all-purpose yards at CCSU, including eight of 220+, five of 250+ and two of 300+, with his 377 all-purpose yards against Robert Morris in 2012 standing as the program's Division I single-game record.
- With 27 career touchdowns, Hollomon's 162 points rank him fifth all-time in scoring at CCSU.

100+ Rushing Yards • The Blue Devils had a streak of 36 straight games with 100+ rushing yards snapped on Saturday against Albany. Prior to Saturday, the last time CCSU failed to reach 100 rushing yards was Nov. 6, 2010 against Robert Morris.

Scoring Streak Snapped • The Blue Devils had scored in 129 consecutive games, a streak that dated back to 2002, before being shutout by Albany on Saturday, Sept. 6.

Vs. Ranked Opponents • The victory over #7 Towson on August 30, was the second for CCSU against a ranked opponent in the last decade. The Blue Devils have squared off with a ranked team 12 times over the 10 seasons and have won twice. In addition to topping Towson, CCSU also beat #13 Georgia Southern on Sept. 9, 2006. The final score of the Georgia Southern game was 17-13. Towson's #7 ranking matched the #7 ranking of William and Mary in 2009 when the Blue Devils traveled to play the Tribe. The highest ranked team CCSU has ever played was #1 North Dakota State in 2008.

National Player of the Week • Senior running back Rob Hollomon was named National Offensive Player of Week by The Sports Network on Monday, Sept. 2. Hollomon rushed for 161 yards and two touchdowns, while also catching a career-high nine passes and returning kicks. He finished the Towson game with 280 all-purpose yards. His second touchdown of the game came with 36 seconds left to play and was the game winner. Hollomon was also the Northeast Conference Offensive Player of the Week.

NEC Rookie of the Week 9/2 • Freshman Joey Fields only caught one pass in the Blue Devils upset of #7 Towson, but it was an important play. Junior Nick SanGiacomo found Fields for a 34-yard strike on fourth-and-13 to set-up the Blue Devils' game-winning score.

Rossomando's Resume • On January 22, 2014, Pete Rossomando was named the 13th head football coach in CCSU history. Rossomando comes to New Britain following a successful six-year run leading the Division II football program at the University of New Haven. Over that time he led the Chargers to a 42-13 record, two NCAA Playoff appearances and coached numerous all-conference and All-America student-athletes. Rossomando was named head coach of the Chargers in December of 2007 as New Haven reinstated its Division II football program after a five-year hiatus. He rebuilt the Chargers into one of the best Division II programs in the country. In the last three seasons, 2011-13, the Chargers posted an overall record of 29-6 and a 20-2 mark in Northeast-10 action, including two consecutive 8-0 regular seasons in league play (2011, 2012). New Haven was ranked as high as No. 3 in the 2012 Division II national polls.

Rossomando was also named Liberty Mutual NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year following the 2012 season. In addition, he earned three NE-10 Coach of the Year awards during his tenure at New Haven.

Walter Payton Award • Senior Rob Hollomon has earned numerous individual honors during his two seasons with the Blue Devils, but in July he found himself on the preseason watch list for the highest individual honor at the Division I FCS level, the Walter Payton Award. Hollomon was among 20 individuals selected for inclusion in the preseason list of candidates for the prestigious award, which goes to the most outstanding player at the FCS level.

SanGiacomo's Record Season • Junior quarterback Nick SanGiacomo set a new CCSU single-season record with 20 touchdown passes last year. The previous record for passing touchdowns was 17 set by Scott Dolch in 2004. SanGiacomo also became the first Blue Devil to throw for 300 yards in a game in more than a decade when he collected 363 yards through the air against Sacred Heart on October 12, 2013. SanGiacomo's 368 yards of total offense in that game set a CCSU single-season record.

1,000 Yard Rushers • Rob Hollomon is now responsible for two of the 13 individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons in CCSU football history. Nine different players have reached the 1,000-yard mark, with Harold Brown being the first in 1967. In 2006, Justise Hairston set the program record with 1,847 yards on 277 attempts. Stan House, Cory Harge, James Mallory and Hollomon are the four Blue Devils with two 1,000-yard seasons. No CCSU Football player has every rushed for 1,000 or more yards in three separate seasons.

Preseason Honors • Four Blue Devils earned Preseason All-Northeast Conference accolades on August 4. Seniors Rob Hollomon (RB), Josh Alaeze (LB), Tyrell Holmes (WR) and junior Tyler Hurd (OL) were all honored by the NEC's coaches. In addition to the NEC honors Hollomon and Holmes each earned preseason watch list honors at their respective positions from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA).

Preseason NEC Coaches' Poll • The Northeast Conference announced the results of its preseason coaches' poll on Monday, August 4. The Blue Devils were picked fourth in the poll behind Sacred Heart, Duquesne and Robert Morris. Wagner, Bryant and Saint Francis U filled out the final three spots in the poll.

Hollomon's preseason accolades also include a First Team All-America selection by The Sports Network and a place on TSN's Walter Payton Award watch list.

Since the beginning of 2004 • Since the beginning of the 2004 season CCSU posts a record of 64-50, including 37-13 at home.

25 or More • Almost Perfect • Since the start of 2004 the Blue Devils are 48-11 when scoring 25 or more points in a game. They are 56-22 when scoring at least 20.

Fox Sports Radio 1410 • Every Central Connecticut football and men's basketball game will air live on radio. Fox Sports Radio 1410 will carry the action with Bruce Biel and Marc Robbins on the call. The station will be branded "The Home of the Blue Devils".

NEC Front Row • Thanks to a continued partnership between the Northeast Conference and the Pack Network, live webcasts of NEC sports will be available free of charge on NECFrontRow.com. The site will carry every NEC football game this season.

GAME RECAPS

at #7/13 Towson (8/30) • The Blue Devils traveled to #7 Towson to open the 2014 season and CCSU proceeded to knock off the Tigers with a stunning 31-27 victory. Towson finished the 2013 season as the NCAA Division I FCS National Runner-up, losing to North Dakota State, and finishing the season as the #2 ranked squad. The Blue Devil defense stood strong against in the first half, holding the Tiger offense to just seven points. CCSU also matched the scored to send the game to the half tied. The back and forth affair continued in the second half with CCSU eventually pulling ahead on a touchdown run by Rob Hollomon.

- Freshman Joey Fields caught a 34-yard pass to convert a fourth-and-13 and set-up CCSU with first-and-goal at the three. It was the first catch of Fields' collegiate career.
- Junior quarterback Nick SanGiacomo was an efficient 22-of-28 passing for 273 yards and two touchdowns. His 273 yards give him three straight games of 250+ dating back to last season.
- Seniors Chris Abner and Josh Alaeze led a defense that limited the Tigers to just 315 yards of total offense and 17 first downs.
- Sophomore kicker Ed Groth connected for his first career field goal, a 27-yard boot in the fourth quarter that put CCSU in front 24-21.

vs. ALBANY (9/6) • The Blue Devils hosted Albany for the 2014 Home Opener, but the Great Danes spoiled the event with a 19-0 victory over the Blue Devils. Albany jumped out to 3-0, 10-0 and 17-0 leads before halftime with the lone second half points coming when the Blue Devils snapped the ball out the back of the endzone for a safety in the third quarter.

- The Blue Devils were shutout for the first time since the 2002 season.
- Sophomore corner Jevon Elmore recorded his first interception of the season.
- Senior Tyrell Holmes had a career-high seven receptions in the game.

at Holy Cross (9/13) • The Blue Devils visited Holy Cross on Saturday and fell 20-7 despite gaining nearly 400 yards of total offense. The Crusaders were led by 287 yards of total offense by quarterback Peter Pujals. Holy Cross jumped out to a 13-0 lead before the Blue Devils scored late in the second quarter to take some momentum into half-time. A touchdown pass by Pujals in the fourth quarter cemented the Holy Cross victory.

- Senior Tyrell Holmes had his fourth career 100+ yard receiving game, it was his second in three games this season.
- Senior Chris Abner had an interception at the one yard line that ended a Holy Cross drive and swung the momentum in the Blue Devils favor in the third quarter.
- Senior Scott Benzing and sophomore Dan Hebert each caught three passes for 44 yards.

at Dartmouth (9/20) • The Blue Devils traveled to Dartmouth to play its second contest all-time against an Ivy League member. The Blue Devils opened up a 19-7 lead on the Big Green, but allowed 28 straight points and eventually fell 35-25. The Blue Devils continued to post yards on offense with 475 yards of total offense, but CCSU was limited to just 25 points.

- Freshman Tavion Pauldo tossed his first career passing touchdown and ran for his first career rushing touchdown.
- Part of the Blue Devils issue was that they went 4-of-7 on redzone trips, while Dartmouth was five-of-five.
- Senior running back Rob Hollomon was limited to 75 yards on 24 carries.

PETE ROSSOMANDO Head Coach • First Season

Central Connecticut State University Director of Athletics Paul Schlickmann named Pete Rossomando as the 13th head coach of the CCSU football program on Wednesday, January 22, 2014.

"I am thrilled to announce the appointment of Pete Rossomando as the next head coach of Blue Devil Football," Schlickmann said on Wednesday. "He emerged from a very deep and competitive pool of candidates by virtue of his exceptional success as a head coach, the clarity and substance of his plan, his reputation as a man of character and ultimately his passion for the job. His football pedigree is widely respected, and he has honored and validated that pedigree with his coaching record."

Rossomando spent the last five seasons as the head coach at the University of New Haven. Over that time he led the Chargers to a 42-13 record, two NCAA Playoff appearances and coached numerous all-conference and All-America student-athletes. Rossomando was named head coach of the Chargers in December of 2007 as New Haven reinstated its Division II football program after a five-year hiatus. He rebuilt the Chargers into one of the best Division II programs in the country. In the last three seasons, 2011-13, the Chargers posted an overall record of 29-6 and a 20-2 mark in Northeast-10 action, including two consecutive 8-0 regular seasons in league play (2011, 2012). New Haven was ranked as high as No. 3 in the 2012 Division II national polls.

Personally, Rossomando was named Liberty Mutual NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year following the 2012 season. He also earned three Northeast-10 Coach of the Year awards as the head coach of the Chargers (2010-12).

"I am tremendously excited to join the Central Connecticut athletics family and to help our football program return to the top of the Northeast Conference," Rossomando said on Wednesday. "President Jack Miller, Paul Schlickmann and I all share the same vision about where this program needs to be on a yearly basis. I believe we can win consistently at CCSU and have a chance to compete for a Northeast Conference title and advance to the NCAA Playoffs each and every season. We have everything in place to be successful. I'm looking forward to meeting the players, building my staff and beginning a new era of CCSU football."

"Coach Rossomando rebuilt a program from the ground up, achieving national prominence while adhering to the belief and practice that the academic and social success of student-athletes is paramount," Schlickmann added. "He believes in the notion that a football program should serve as a positive front porch and source of pride for the University. We value all of the qualities he displayed and I believe they will translate well for him as the leader of our program."

Prior to being named head coach at New Haven, Rossomando was an assistant coach at the University at Albany for seven seasons, serving as associate head coach, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for his final three seasons with the Great Danes. Albany won three Northeast Conference Championships (2002, 2003, 2007) with Rossomando on the sidelines. The Great Danes posted a record of 46-32 in his seven seasons, including 36-12 in NEC play.

"Throughout this process I was impressed with the entire campus and the facilities and direction of the athletics program at CCSU," Rossomando said. "This football program has been successful in the past, winning four NEC titles since 2004, and I know we can get back to that level of football. We have some work ahead of us, but the players that are here are ready to get back to the top of the NEC, and we're excited to begin that process. My family and I are excited to be Blue Devils."

Rossomando has also served as an assistant at Northeastern (1999) and Cortland State (2000). His collegiate coaching career began in 1994 as an assistant at New Haven under head coach Tony Sparano. While an assistant at UNH the Chargers advanced to the NCAA Playoffs in 1995 and again in 1997 when the team reached the National Championship game.

In all Rossomando brings 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to CCSU.

As a student-athlete, Rossomando played at the FCS level (then I-AA) for Boston University, seeing action on the offensive and defensive lines for the Terriers from 1990-93. He helped the team to the 1993 Yankee Conference Championship and a trip to the NCAA Playoffs with an undefeated record.

A native of Staten Island, NY, Rossomando was a decorated student-athlete at Port Richmond High School being named the 1989 Staten Island Player of the Year.

Rossomando and his wife, Jessica, have three children, Reese (15), Gianna (9) and Nicholas (7).

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT PETE ROSSOMANDO

Tony Sparano, Assistant Head Coach, Oakland Raiders

"I have mixed emotions when it comes to Pete leaving New Haven and moving on to Central Connecticut. On one hand I know my alma mater is losing a great football coach and a tremendous leader. He brought our program back from nothing and put it back in the football map. On the other hand, CCSU is getting the right person to lead its football program back to the top of the Northeast Conference. I'm happy for Pete and his family and for the fans and players at CCSU. The Blue Devils will be primed for success with Pete leading the way."

Bob Ford, Former Head Coach, University at Albany

"Congratulations to Central Connecticut on hiring an outstanding football coach. Pete brings a lot of things to the table that are going to help the Blue Devils be successful. He is a great recruiter, has a tremendous work ethic and is a proven commodity in the coaching community. Pete has been a position coach, a coordinator and a head coach and has been successful in everything he has gotten himself into. I think the world of Pete and know this a tremendous hire for CCSU."

Chris Palmer, Former NFL Head Coach/Coordinator

"Pete Rossomando is an outstanding football coach and is a proven winner. He'll do an outstanding job at Central Connecticut. He knows the state and its high school coaches and I know the players will enjoy playing for him. CCSU is getting a good man."
